BETHINE'S BURRATA:

JEAN BETHINE CLARK CHURCH

(February 19, 1923 - December 21, 2013) was the spouse of U.S. Senator Frank Church of Idaho. As politically active as her husband, she earned the nickname of "Idaho's third senator." In many ways Bethine Clark was as politically active as her husband, actively participating in his campaigns for the Senate and his 1976 Presidential campaign.

BORAH BURGER:

WILLIAM EDGAR BORAH

(June 29, 1865 - January 19, 1940) was a Republican United States Senator, one of the best-known figures in Idaho's history. A progressive who served from 1907 until his death in 1940, Borah is often considered an isolationist, for he led the Irreconcilables, senators who would not accept the Treaty of Versailles, Senate ratification of which would have made the U.S. part of the League of Nations.

C. BEN ROSS CAESAR:

CHARLES BENJAMIN ROSS

(December 27, 1876 - March 31, 1946) was the first Idaho-born Governor of Idaho and an important Idaho political figure throughout the 1930s. Ross served as governor from 1931 until 1937.

CHENOWETH'S CHICKEN:

HELEN PALMER CHENOWETH-HAGE, BORN HELEN MARGARET PALMER

(January 27, 1938 - October 2, 2006) was a Republican politician from the U.S. state of Idaho, the only Republican woman to ever represent that state in the United States Congress.

HARRIMAN HARVEST SALAD:

W. AVERELL HARRIMAN

(November 15, 1891 - July 26, 1986) served as the 48th Governor of New York and was Secretary of Commerce under President Harry S. Truman. He later owned Union Pacific Railroad and along with Count Felix Schaffgotsch found Sun Valley Resort in Sun Valley, Idaho.

STEUNENBERG SALMON:

FRANK STEUNENBERG

(August 8, 1861 - December 30, 1905) was the fourth Governor of the State of Idaho, serving from 1897 until 1901. In 1905 he was assassinated in Caldwell, Idaho.

PFOST PORK:

GRACIE BOWERS PFOST

(March 12, 1906 - August 11, 1965) was the first woman to represent Idaho in the United States Congress, serving five terms as a Democrat in the House of Representatives. Pfof represented the state's 1st district from 1953 to 1963. The "Hell's Belle" of Congress, she was a moderately liberal Democrat, who earned her nickname in her first year, fighting for a large federal dam on the Snake River in Hells Canyon.

PETE'S LAMB POPSICLES:

PETE THOMAS CENARRUSA

(December 16, 1917 - September 29, 2013) was an Idaho Republican politician. He served continuously for over half a century in elective office, first as a member of the Idaho Legislature and then as Secretary of State. His Basque heritage was an essential part of his life.
