HISTORY OF THE NAMES

IDAHO
IS THE 43RD
STAR ON
THE FLAG OF THE
UNITED STATES
OF AMERICA

Bethine's Burrata: Jean Bethine Clark Church

(February 19, 1923 – December 21, 2013), was the spouse of U.S. Senator Frank Church of Idaho. As politically active as her husband, she earned the nickname of "Idaho's third senator." In many ways Bethine Clark was as politically active as her husband, actively participating in his campaigns for the Senate and his 1976 Presidential campaign.

Borah Brussel Sprouts: William Edgar Borah

(June 29, 1865 – January 19, 1940) was a Republican United States Senator, one of the best-known figures in Idaho's history. A progressive who served from 1907 until his death in 1940, Borah is often considered an isolationist,[a] for he led the Irreconcilables, senators who would not accept the Treaty of Versailles, Senate ratification of which would have made the U.S. part of the League of Nations.

C. Ben Ross Caesar: Charles Benjamin Ross

(December 27, 1876 – March 31, 1946) was the first Idaho-born Governor of Idaho and an important Idaho political figure throughout the 1930s. Ross served as governor from 1931 until 1937.

Chenoweth's Chicken: Helen Palmer Chenoweth-Hage, born Helen Margaret Palmer

(January 27, 1938 – October 2, 2006) was a Republican politician from the U.S. state of Idaho, the only Republican woman to ever represent that state in the United States Congress.

Hawley's Halloumi Fries: James Henry Hawley

(January 17, 1847 – August 3, 1929) was an American attorney and politician from Idaho. He was state's ninth Governor from 1911 to 1913, and the mayor of Boise from 1903 to 1905.

Pete's Lamb Popsicles: Pete Thomas Cenarrusa

(December 16, 1917 – September 29, 2013) was an Idaho Republican politician. He served continuously for over half a century in elective office, first as a member of the Idaho Legislature and then as Secretary of State. His Basque heritage was an essential part of his life.

Pinney's Pacific Sole: James Alonzo Pinney

(September 29, 1835 – February 4, 1914) served as mayor of Boise, Idaho Territory (later Boise, Idaho) in the late 19th century and early 20th century. He is the only person in the city's history to serve as mayor three nonconsecutive times and win election as mayor five times. Pinney was Boise mayor when Idaho Territory became the U.S. state of Idaho in July 1890.

Steunenbergs Salmon: Frank Steunenbergs

(August 8, 1861 – December 30, 1905) was the fourth Governor of the State of Idaho, serving from 1897 until 1901. In 1905 he was assassinated in Caldwell, Idaho.

Sweet's Spinach Salad: Willis Sweet

(January 1, 1856 – July 9, 1925) was the first United States Representative elected from Idaho following statehood in 1890. Sweet served as a Republican in the House from 1890 to 1895, representing the state at-large.

W. Wallace French Onion: William Henson Wallace

(July 19, 1811 – February 7, 1879) was an important figure in the early histories of two U.S. states, serving as governor and Congressional delegate from both Washington Territory and Idaho Territory.
